CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION

Attached from Washington Field Office advises that Charles R. Richey, U.S. District Judge, District of Columbia, notified Washington Field Office that his resident manager had received a series of phone calls from a white female threatening him. Investigation determined that 3 calls were made to resident manager and 2 visits by a white female. Caller and visitor believed to be one and the same. Initial telephone calls were attempts to determine if any "Superior or District Court Judges resided there". Later calls referred to victim (Judge Richey) as both "Judge" and "Justice" and words to the effect if manager did not divulge Judge's apartment number, "We will get you both". Last appearance of unknown subject at Judge Richey's apartment complex was on 5/29/79. Unsub characterized as rambling, incoherent, dirty and unkempt in appearance. Based on reference to Justice, WFO contacted U.S. Supreme Court Police to develop suspect. As a result, prime suspect appears to be [redacted] white female, born [redacted] last known address is [redacted]

Investigation by WFO eliminated [redacted] as suspect. A composite drawing of Unsub was disseminated to various D.C. law enforcement agencies. As a result, a U.S. Capitol Police Officer observed a white female fitting Unsub's composite on 6/18/79. WFO agents interviewed this woman on a public street at 12th and E., N.W., She identified herself as (X) PAULA GATEWOOD, DOB: 9/11/27, SSAN 218-40-2059 (X). During interview, she appeared erratic and rambling but expressed no hostility toward any members of the Judiciary. GATEWOOD is a public assistance case, with no fixed address.

Inquiry at St. Elizabeth's Hospital determined GATEWOOD a discharged patient whose records transferred to Suitland, Md. At the request of WFO, the file is being located and returned to St. Elizabeth's at which time a photo of GATEWOOD will be obtained and displayed to the witness who observed Unsub.

22 JUL 2 1979

WFO, after display of photo will present to U.S. Attorney's Office.

It is noted no additional calls or visits to victim's residence have occurred.

Bureau will be kept advised.

CHARLES R. RICHEY, A United States District Judge for the District of Columbia, was interviewed in his chambers, Room 4317, U.S. District Courthouse.

b7C

Judge RICHEY was advised of the identities of the interviewing officers his Special Agents of the FBI. Present during the interview were Deputy U.S. Marshals [redacted]
[redacted]

Judge RICHEY resides at the Plaza Apartments in Northwest Washington, D.C. and was notified of a series of suspicious and threatening situations which have occurred recently. This information was relayed to him by [redacted] [redacted] According to [redacted] the following incidents occurred.

A female sounding person called the Plaza Apartments and inquired if "any Judges lived there." On a second occasion, a caller, sounding female, inquired "Do you have Judge RICHEY there?" On a third occasion, a female caller stated words to the effect "if you don't tell us Judge RICHEY's apartment number, we will get both of you." On two occasions, a white female visited the Plaza Apartments and spoke with employee [redacted] also attempting to identify the Judges apartment. Notes concerning these incidents were apparently prepared by [redacted] and/or [redacted] and subsequently turned over to U.S. Marshal [redacted]

Judge RICHEY has not personally experienced or observed any conduct or actions recently which might be suspicious to him either privately or in his official capacity. [redacted] as well has not reported anything suspicious or alarming with the exception of the theft of a headlight assembly from her car within the last three months. The car, a 1975 Ford, was parked on Chase Avenue in Bethesda, Maryland and [redacted] discovered the headlight fixture missing. This incident was investigated by Inspector [redacted] of the U.S. Marshal's Service, who reported it appeared to be merely a routine theft by persons needing just such a car part.

Investigation on 5/30/79 at Washington, D.C. File # WFO 89-617

by SAs [redacted] and [redacted] JPD:pep Date dictated 5/30/79

Judge RICHEY did not recall any recent cases before his court that might generate threats to himself. He noted he currently has before him a criminal prosecution with the Founding Church of Scientology as defendants and that various courtroom statements as well as various documents allege these defendants to generate extensive personal information about Government officials, including Federal Judges.

Judge RICHEY was unable to supply any additional information, however, would remain alert for suspicious or alarming activities and immediately contact the FBI.

[redacted] Plaza Apartments, 800 25th Street, N.W., telephone [redacted] was interviewed at her place of employment. She was advised of the identities of [redacted] as Special Agents of the FBI and that the interview concerned threatening communications she received toward U.S. District Judge CHARLES R. RICHEY. She thereafter furnished the following information:

On April 26, 1979, at approximately 1:45 p.m., the apartment switchboard operator transferred a call to her. The caller, sounding to be a white female, with no noticeable accent, inquired "Do you have a Superior or District Judge in your place?" She inquired who was calling and who the party desired to speak. At that, the caller terminated the call. She did not recognize the caller's voice.

On May 18, 1979, at approximately 2:45 p.m., she received a second call from the person whose voice she recognized as the April 26, 1979, caller. At this time, the caller stated "You do have a District Court Judge there." The caller's statements were rambling, made mention of "Superior and District", and appeared nervous. She informed the caller that policy prohibits disclosing such information and requested the caller's name and telephone number. The caller then hung up.

On May 29, 1979, again at approximately 2:45 p.m., she received the third call from the person she recognized as the caller on 2 previous occasions. She noted the caller made no statement like "hello", etc., but began immediately speaking of "the District Judge." The caller stated "you are housing the District Judge there." The caller also made some mention again of Superior Court. The caller's conversation also included a statement that "You bitch, I know I have the right place because I know Judge RICHEY's wife walks the dog." Also, the caller inquired if the apartment also had some Supreme Court Justices. During this call, the caller also said words sounding like "We want to know the apartment number, bitch, and if you don't give it to us we will get you and him locked up." The caller also asked [redacted] first name.

During this third call, she definitely heard additional voices in the background. The caller sounded more "solemn and sober". She put the caller on hold during the 3rd call and attempted to call the operator on another line, however, the caller hung up when put on hold.

She estimated the voice to be a white woman in the age group of 40-50 years.

[redacted] stated she would notify the FBI immediately of any additional calls and would keep an accurate log and record of such calls.

[redacted] was displayed 9 photographs of members of the Church of Scientology and she was unable to identify anyone pictured as being seen by her in the past.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

1Date of transcription 5/31/79

[redacted] the Plaza Apartment Complex, 800 25th Street, N.W., furnished the following information:

b6

About 6 months ago, a white female, approximately 50 years old, 5'5", dry, short gray hair, entered the Plaza Apartments during the early afternoon. This woman rambled incoherently and after a brief time, departed of her own volition. The woman made no mention of Judge RICHEY or any members of the Judiciary.

On May 29, 1979, this same woman again entered the Apartment complex lobby and said she had been at all the nearby apartments looking for "Justice" (last name unrecalled by [redacted]). This woman was in a 2 piece dress, unkempt, in appearance and made some pinching gestures with her hands when speaking. The conversation was very brief, lasting less than 3 minutes after which she walked out to the sidewalk in a fashion described as "ranting and raving."

[redacted] was absolutely certain this woman was identical, based on voice, to the woman who had been calling [redacted]. The woman, on both occasions, used mild profanity and, although mostly unintelligible, did make a statement "I'll get you." On both occasions, this woman gave the appearance of being drunk.

[redacted] viewed 9 photos depicting members of the Scientology Church and was unable to identify any as being in the Plaza Apartments.

UNKNOWN SUBJECT

b6
b7C

The investigation outlined below was conducted on the dates indicated by Special Agent (SA) [redacted] unless otherwise noted:

On May 31, 1979, U.S. Marshal [redacted] advised his office was conducting an inquiry into this matter under the direction of Inspector [redacted] Marshal [redacted] and Inspector [redacted] were advised that they would be continuously furnished information developed during the course of this investigation.

On May 31, 1979, [redacted] Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company, [redacted] N.W., advised a telephone trap in this instance was feasible and such would be instituted if the calls to Judge Richey's apartment complex continued and the FBI requested such a trap.

On June 1, 1979, a representative of the Supreme Court Police was contacted for possible suspects. It was determined [redacted] white female, born [redacted] [redacted] Social Security Number [redacted] fit the description and profile of the unknown subject in this matter and is believed to have been a past patient of a psychiatrist practicing medicine at [redacted]
[redacted]

A photo of [redacted] was obtained from the files of St. Elizabeth's Hospital and displayed to [redacted] [redacted] viewed this photo and stated [redacted] was definitely not identical to the unknown subject.

On June 8, 1979, Officer [redacted] of the Metropolitan Police Department prepared an artist conception drawing of the unknown subject based on his interview with [redacted]

During the period June 12 through June 15, this artist conception drawing was displayed in the area of Judge Richey's apartment complex. The manager and lunch counter personnel at the People's Drug Store, 19th and E Streets, N.W., recognized this drawing as a woman who had been in the drug store in the past. They agreed to notify the FBI should this woman again enter the store.

UNKNOWN SUBJECT

Copies of the artist conception drawing was furnished various Washington, D.C. law enforcement agencies and on June 18, 1979, The U.S. Capitol Police notified the FBI that a woman closely resembling the unknown subject was observed walking on Capitol Hill. Based on this notification, Pauline Gatewood, a white female, born September 11, 1927, Social Security Number 218-40-2059, was interviewed by FBI agents on the corner of 12th and F Streets, N.W. During the interview, GATEWOOD, who has no fixed address, expressed no hatred, interest or displeasure with any members of the judiciary. It was determined that Gatewood has been a public assistance recipient since 1971 and personally picks up subsistence benefits monthly at 500 First Street, N.W. b6 b7C

Neither [redacted] or Gatewood known to the U.S. Secret Service, U.S. Capitol Police or Metropolitan Police Department. Based on available information, no record of these individuals could be located in the Identification Division of the FBI.

On July 30, 1979, [redacted] advised she has received no additional telephone calls or visits from the unknown subject but stated should this occur in the future, she would immediately notify the FBI.

On July 30, 1979, this case was discussed with Assistant U.S. Attorney Charles H. Roistacher, Chief of the Grand Jury Section. Mr. Roistacher noted that all logical efforts to date to identify the unknown subject have been unproductive. In addition, conduct of the unknown subject appeared more as a nuisance and annoyance rather than a clear cut violation of Federal law. In view of these considerations, he would decline prosecution.
